Date: Thursday, October 27, 2011

Place: Burke County Office Park
206 N. Liberty Street
Waynesboro, GA

For small and beginning farmers, existing cooperatives and those interested in learning more about them. One out of every three Americans belong to a cooperative. Come and learn about how they operate and what they can do for you!

To reserve a seat at this free meeting contact Terry Dismuke at terry.dismuke@ga.usda.gov or call 706-546-2165.

Committed to the future of rural communities.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, and where applicable, sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, political beliefs, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TDD).

To file a complaint of discrimination, write: USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250-9410, or call (800) 795-3272 (voice) or (202) 720-6382 (TDD). USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.
